Call for application to the INDEED's Training Programmes for Practitioners and Experts in PVE/CVE and De-Radicalisation Initiatives

Dear Madam/Sir,

The INDEED EU project dedicated to enhancing Evidence-Based Evaluation (EBE) in the field of P/CVE and exit work has launched a call for applicants.

Three training opportunities are offered:

- Bremen, Germany: 30.01 - 02.02.2024.
For practitioners with no prior experience in evaluation.
- Madrid, Spain: 12.03 - 15-03.2024.
For practitioners with no prior experience in evaluation.
- Cluj-Napoca, Romania: May 2024 (Dates TBC).
For practitioners with experience in evaluation.

Both training programmes are designed for:

- Practitioners, professionals and experts working in initiatives preventing and countering violent extremism, de-radicalisation, or crime prevention programming, including from law enforcement agencies, local and national government authorities, state and public institutions, civil society and community-based organisations, and other relevant institutions;
- Professional evaluators in the field of P/CVE and De-radicalisation
- Academics, Researchers and Analysis in the field of P/CVE and De-radicalisation, particularly those involved in evaluation, research into drivers, causes and dynamics in the field, and/or involved in support to policy-making and development

The training is free of charge and INDEED will cover accommodation (where needed).
